Newsletter – February 2019

Dear fellow members,

Our first General Meeting of 2019 was fairly well attended, and the talk on the kind of hearing problems which audiologists deal with was well presented and illustrated. Members who were keen to learn more were invited to take one of the brochures on offer.

The planned outing to the Cape Point Ostrich Farm on Tuesday 19th February was cancelled owing to the admission of R80pp, which we regarded as exorbitant and unaffordable. In its place will be an outing to Imhoff (on the Kommetjie Road) where we will have a coffee stop and walk-about, journeying on to the Noordhoek Farm Village for lunch and a bit of exploring. This will be a new destination for the club. If you intend booking for this trip please remember to give your choice of meal : Beef or Vegetable lasagne with a side salad; or chicken a la King with basmati rice; or 2 fish cakes with a side salad. Dessert : Malva pudding with vanilla ice cream, as well as filter coffee or tea. Included in the R90pp (add a gratuity of 10%)

The restaurant (Noordhoek Café & Deli) is licensed with a selection of wines.

Please also note the revised date of the outing: Thursday 21 February

Further details overleaf.

We would like to include one or two “local” places of interest in our programme this year, e.g. the Green Point Park, the Cape Town Castle and Kirstenbosch, depending on support.

The 3-day mini-break to Calitzdorp (4-6 April) has been fully booked, Eric Palmer and his wife Jill will be looking after us. The four members of Pinelands SAARP club in the group have been with us on previous 3-day trips.

We always enjoy good fellowship, and Eric (an official tour guide) shares his extensive knowledge of the history, birdlife, mountains, agriculture etc of the places we visit.

You will notice a change at the top of this newsletter where we list the “portfolios” of the committee, the who’s who doing what. Our chairman, Victoria Paterson, has taken over the task of finding the monthly speakers/entertainers. She regards this service as an interim one, and hopes some keen member will be willing to take over in the not-too-distant future. Please note that our AGM will be in March as usual, and members able to assist us on the committee should not be reluctant to “put up their hand”, as the sportsmen say!

SUBSCRIPTION REMINDER
