NEWSLETTER 26TH MARCH 2019

Good morning and welcome to all. We hope you are all geared up for the cold days ahead as the season changes and we prepare to go into “hibernation” but don’t let that keep you away from the club.

To all who are not well, our thoughts are with you. Many happy returns to those who celebrate a birthday this month with special wishes to Mrs .E.S.Hunt who celebrated her 85th on the 16th. Then early next month Imelda will celebrate her 80th on the 5th of April and Joan Galloway will celebrate her 85th on the 12th.

Please see items of interest on the Notice Board.

*Our next get-together will be on :
TUESDAY 23rd April*

Until then ,take care and stay warm.

SMILE CORNER:

IT'S WAR OUT THERE.

Every Saturday morning an elderly gentleman finds himself babysitting his three grandchildren : all boys.

The kids always want to play “war” and somehow Grandpa always gets coaxed into the game.

One Saturday morning when his daughter arrives to pick up the kids, she sees one of the boys pointing a toy gun at the old man and shouting “ bang”.

Grandpa slumps to the floor and lies there motionless.His daughter rushes over to see if he’s alright.

Grandpa opens one eye and whispers”Shhh I always do this . It’s the only way I get a break”.

POINT TAKEN.

A couple are discussing what will happen to them when they grow old.

“Just so you know,” the husband says, “I never want to live in a vegetative state, depending on some machine and fluids in a bottle. If that ever happens, you pull the plug.”

So his wife gets up, unplugs the TV and throws out all his beer.

SELFLESS ACT.

A couple are getting ready to go to a wedding.

The guy never dresses up, so when he appears from the bedroom decked out in a suit and tie, he decides to commemorate the moment.

Handing his wife his smartphone, he says “Mind taking a selfie of me?.”
