FUN IN THE SUN – BOWLS ON THURSDAY, 20 FEBRUARY 2020

It was unanimous that the morning spent at Northmead Bowls Club was most enjoyable and all those that attended this event voted for this to be repeated. Members of Northmead were the perfect hosts, not only coaching the first time players, but also providing the most delicious refreshments. One of Northmead’s committee, Tony, is scrutinized by the ladies, as he is on his knees measuring the closest Wood to the Jack. The winning team consisted of Jim Stenhouse (Lead), Jennifer Taylor and Ernie Dent.

THE LAST WORD

Hi Max. This is Jim, next door. I've been riddled with guilt for a few months and have been trying to get up the courage to tell you face-to-face. When you're not around, I've been sharing your wife, day and night, probably much more than you. I haven't been getting it at home recently. I know that's no excuse. The temptation was just too great. I can't live with the guilt and hope you'll accept my sincere apology and forgive me. Please suggest a fee for usage and I'll pay you. Sincerely, Jim

Max, feeling enraged and betrayed, grabbed his gun, went next door, and shot Jim dead. He returned home, shot his wife, poured himself a stiff drink, and sat down on the sofa. Max then looked at his phone and discovered a second text message from Jim.

SECOND TEXT MESSAGE:

Hi Max. Jim here again. Sorry about the typo on my last text. I assume you figured it out and noticed that the darned Spell-Check had changed "Wi-Fi" to "wife." Technology, huh? It'll be the death of us all.
